Junmo's Reflection:

The Election Season

Last Sunday there was a debate between the two leaders on TV. This debate was supposed to be on at the same time as Master Chef, one of the most popular shows on TV. They ended up changing the time because they didn't want to lose the audience! However, the Federal election is one of the most important things at this time. The debate has become one of main topics for many people, even for primary school students. The Church ministers' meeting was no exception and we talked about it at our last meeting.

As you know our church will also have a kind of election at our next Annual General Meeting on the 22nd. Just as we need politicians to manage our country, so we need church leaders to manage our church. Money, fame and privilege are guaranteed to politicians but such things are not granted to church members in the position of leader.

I would like to thank all those who have given of their time and effort to this church over so many years. Some are stepping back this year and we thank them for their generous efforts and support. Many others continue to serve us and we are truly thankful for your devotion.

Now we are looking for new people willing to work for the church as well as for the God that we worship. I hope that our church leadership this year will be shared by many more church members. Please consider nominating for this important work, enjoying the rewards and helping to share the load.
